RG104 E-1 Box 139

(Copy)

C.

Treasury Department.
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C. March 15. 1886.

Hon. Daniel W. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir;

There has been forwarded to you by express, an ingot of Copper received from the Consolidated Queen Mining Company for the purpose of testing to ascertain whether the Same is Suitable for alloying the coins of the U.S.

You will please cause the Same to be tested and report the results to this bureau.

Very Respectfully

(Signed) James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 139

(Copy)

P.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
March 15, 1886

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir;

There has been forwarded to you by express, an ingot of Copper received from the Consolidated Queen Mining Company for the purpose of testing to ascertain whether the same is suitable for allying the coins of the U.S.

You will please cause the same to be tested and report the results to this bureau.

Very Respectfully,
(Signed) James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.